

Weekly Roundup 5th July 2024

What a great week we have had!

AWARDS DAY!

No celebration assembly this week as the children were very busy having their class photos taken.

Normal service will resume next week.

BUTTERFLY AND FIREFLY CLASS

Butterfly and firefly class have enjoyed making and eating bread.

School trip to Bristol Synagogue

Thank you to all those who have made payment. School trips are a great way for children to experience learning in a different way and develop life skills. Unfortunately due to school budget constraints if we do not receive sufficient donations from parents to cover the costs then these trips cannot go ahead.

If you are unable to meet the cost please speak to the office team.

POLITE NOTICE

Please can we ask that you keep your parentpay accounts up to date.

We are at the end of our financial year and all accounts must be cleared.

We have sent emails to those whose accounts are in arrears, please check your emails carefully, including your junk and spam folders.

If you are experiencing financial difficulties keeping your account up to date please contact the school office.

Violins

We still have a few violins to sell at £5 each (cash only). If you are interested please come to the office and take a look.

Free school meals and HAF

Please could we draw your attention once again to the free activities on offer throughout the Summer holidays to children in receipt of free school meals, click here for more information.

If you haven't already done so, please apply for free school meals here
